 HS	All the Bright Places by Jennifer Niven Theodore Finch is fascinated by death, and he constantly thinks of ways he might kill himself. But each time, something good, no matter how small, stops him. Violet Markey lives for the future, counting the days until graduation, when she can escape her Indiana town and her aching grief in the wake of her sister's recent death. But as Violet's world grows, Finch's begins to shrink.	 HS	Carry On by Rainbow Rowell Simon Snow is the worst chosen one who's ever been chosen. That's what his roommate, Baz, says. And Baz might be evil and a vampire and a complete git, but he's probably right. Companion novel to Fangirl by Rowell, this is Simon's story.
 (1st in series) MS/HS	The Girl From Everywhere by Heidi Heilig Nix has spent her entire life aboard her father's ship, sailing across the centuries, across the world, across myth and imagination, as long as he had a map for it. But the end to it all looms closer every day. Her father is obsessed with obtaining the one map that could take him back to his lost love, Nix's mother. Nix could find herself, find her family, find her own fantastical ability, her own epic love. Or she could disappear.	 HS	I Was Here by Gayle Forman When her best friend Meg dies alone in a motel room, Cody is understandably shocked and devastated. She and Meg shared everything—so how was there no warning? But when Cody travels to Meg's college town to pack up the belongings left behind, she discovers everything she thought she knew about her best friend and her death is questionable.
 MS/HS	Outrun the Moon by Stacey Lee San Francisco, 1906: 15-year-old Mercy Wong is determined to break from the poverty in Chinatown, & an education at St. Clare's School for Girls is her best hope. On April 18, a historic earthquake rocks San Francisco, destroying Mercy's home and school. Mercy can't sit by while they wait for the army to bring help.
